Mr. and Mrs. Ashbel Gilliam have the sympathy of all our people in the loss of their baby boy. The child was born Monday and died the same day. The little body was laid away in the Hondo cemetery to await the resurrection call of Him who said: "Suffer the little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven".

Wm. Nagel of Nagel Brothers Monument Company of Fredericksburg was here during the week on business. While here he erected five monuments in the Hondo cemetery, one over the graves of each of the three members of the Pike family, one over the grave of Ben Neumann and one over the grave of little Annie Laura Neumann. The stones were hauled overland from Fredericksburg and it took three days to make the trip over the mud-

SMALLPOX.

Six cases of smallpox have developed, five on the old Frank Brown fam and one on the Jack Fusselman farm and one on the Jack Fusselman children. Thus far, one death has occurred. The remainder of the cases have been placed under strict quarantine, and all other parties have been vaccinated, and the County Health officer feels confident a general spread of the disease will be averted. The introduction of the disease into the neighborhood is directly traceable to Mexican cotton pickers from Mexico.

THE MEDINA COUNTY FAIR CLOSES SECOND AN-NUAL EVENT

Despite Inclement Weather and Other Handicaps, Fair Will Not Be Financial Loss.

ATTENDANCE LARGE EVERY DAY.

Despite the fact that the attendance at the Fair on Friday was not up to expectations, on account of the rains of the night before, the attendance Saturday and Sunday largely offset it and, while receipts and expenditures have not been balanced, the Fair management is satisfied that the Fair will not lose. The attendance would have undoubtedly exceeded expectations had the weather been favorable.

We regret that an extensive review of the many interesting exhibits on display is an impossibility at this time and must content ourselves with giving only the premium list which follows below.

What was to have been the finale of the event was the Oueen's Ball. Financial necessity compelled its continuance over Sunday, but the main social attractions ended with the Ball of Saturday night.
